To the Public.
Rumors having been circulated derogatory to my actions in the late case which occurred between Samuel B. Marsh, Esq; and Mr. A. W. Ayres, I have taken the liberty to inform this community of my proceedings on the occasion, so far as I feel bound to explain my conduct to their good sense, as a peace officer, "in a few words." I was called upon, by C. P. Newell, Esq; to separate said Marsh & Ayres who were engaged in an affray—and as an officer of the peace, I proceeded to perform my duty, and in doing so, I regret to say the "REVISED" feelings of Mr. Marsh, have become (unintentionally on my part) severely wounded, and for which he blames me as having interfered to gratify personal feelings, instead of performing my official duty.

Should it become necessary for me to produce references to justify the above statement they can be readily produced.
SAMUEL MOORE.
Carrollton, Sept. 9th, 1841. 39-13.
